AI: Let's take a look at your spending habits! It looks like you are over budget in the Food category by a significant amount ( $$2045.67 - $45.00 = $2000.67$ ). To get back on track, consider reducing dining out expenses or cooking more meals at home. As for Transportation and Other categories, since they're within your budgets, no immediate action is needed there.
